Attachment to November 9, 1995 Disposal Suspension Notice

All records that relate to the subjects described below are covered by this disposal suspension:

1. Healthy Buildings International, Inc., HBI USA, HBI Iberica, S.L., ACVA Atlantic, Inc. or any other predecessor or affiliated companies and their present or former employees including but not limited to Gray Robertson, Peter Binnie, Simon Turner, Richard Silberman, Jeffrey Seckler, Miles Price, Reginald Simmons, Gregory Wulchin, Nicole Miles, Anne Robertson, Brenda Groves, Susan Voccio and Dee Huss (collectively "HBI");

2. the relationship between Philip Morris or any other person or entity and HBI including but not limited to any grants, contracts, subcontracts or memoranda of understanding with or relating to HBI;

3. communications of Philip Morris or any other person or entity with or relating to HBI including but not limited to correspondence, notes or memoranda;

4. services rendered by HBI, directly or indirectly, to Philip Morris or any other person or entity including but not limited to reports or evaluations prepared by HBI;

5. appearances in which HBI testified or spoke at the request, directly or indirectly, of Philip Morris or any other person or entity in federal, state or local government proceedings relating to environmental tobacco smoke or indoor air quality including but not limited to written testimony of HBI;

6. magazines or other publications of HBI including but not limited to their funding, content or publication;

7. payments or grants made to or on behalf of HBI, directly or indirectly, by Philip Morris or any other person or entity including but not limited to checks, invoices, or billing statements;

8. payment by Philip Morris or any other person or entity of legal fees or costs incurred by HBI, and

8. current or threatened litigation involving HBI.

2041891429

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/ngpn0004